

slow songs (2013-2015)

I see a deer

I see a deer in a shield behind the trees in my sight he is simply not to be here with my kind wondering to be just between on his shoulder he carries some light with an opening I haven't seen him for long on his chair on his Hochsitz even though it is pouring away some rain to wipe out the writings in time cables go through no rare earth to lure him some batteries are with some risk some gazellas are with shields as one colour is amended he is standing kind of hungry

condensationdate the expected condensationdate I don't know by heart the specific formations are not decided yet flowers joining the embedded ones how do you look at it right here today they are like slow trains seen from above the lands this time they have to show their passports to go heavenwards or to meet the waiting ones needles

needles were out in some region leaving their nettles over earthlike plenty of lateness to see since I owe them some acquaintance to where some are in lightness fish are not jumping no cotton I can see neither high for once kill me not in this hotel room plenty of visitors carrying their sunhats
and cameras purpose of swimming

can you tell

fathers & feathers

my fathers are falling from feathered hills my fathers are four dots and freckles my fathers are fathers of the mice my fathers are some books and freckles my fathers are one my fathers are two like from some lookout some are stirring the ground up my fathers are light of senses some grow up to four feet high my fathers are feathers are freckles I lie to them once in a while want to retail some overprinted views fathers are feathers my organ lets them go in running streets where fall does fall in pieces fading out the freckles find them for there are lots of spells when we are not in the rye keys

nor silent, kind or real are things in thinking stored in my buildings turn three walls to see hills ask, ask things keys under flowerpots where we are not seeing reasons to seek under in so we are normally nervous just a nervousness, just nervous about this pronunciation in supermarkets we buy our computers to control pronunciation and exclamation marks pretty ride

pretty ride upon something in a word wordless war to be not aware I like to describe it like this where my mind is within fingers or toes catch them in a field or to allow it to yourself a foreign language means some other invitation this is how I see it

cores

cores are
cores are
cores are bones not strange all wills
readers are poles in cold poles is hot sitting in waters where is the water where is it sprinkling out of my hair chairs are necessary here
I know
I know
I don't mind

pipes

pipes, hours trennen diese Obliegenheiten
Scharen ziehen
keine Spuren von Blasen politische Zeichen sind manchmal erwünscht sagt Erika in ihrer Bibliothek kein Zögern kostet sie ein Wimpernzucken am Schluß ist es nichts als ein Wimpernzucken sagt sie

split away

split away in small ways cook the south
dig the snow

eat the trace
see the doubt
handle the scout
feed no speed to the bushes move on
